

Overview

The Long-Term Service awards recognize coaches, Club volunteers, and officials who have consistently dedicated their time and energy to Masters Swimming. The years of serve relate to masters swimming and may be at the Club, provincial or national level.

Recipients will be recognized by length of service:

- 5-Year Service Award
- 10-Year Service Award
- 15-Year Service Award
- 20-Year Service Award
- +25-Year Service Award

Application Process

Applications are to be forwarded, along with a recent photo (.jpg format) of the individual, to the MSC at any time throughout the year.

Presentation of Award

- MSC will prepare awards in May for all applications received in the preceding year
- For recipients with Club-level participation, the award will be made available to the Club for presentation at an appropriate time
- Provincial-level awards will be made available to the PMO for presentation at an appropriate time
- National-level service will be presented at the MSC Awards Banquet which is held during the Canadian Masters Swimming Championships each May.

An announcement will also be posted to the Awards Section of the MSC Website.
